(m) Gaming

(n) Cryptanalytic tools

(o) "Open cryptographic interface" (or other support for user-supplied or non-standard cryptography)

(p) Other (identify any not listed above)

(q) Not Applicable (Not a producer of encryption or information technology items)

(4) Describe whether the products incorporate or use proprietary, unpublished or non-standard cryptographic functionality, including encryption algorithms or protocols that have not been adopted or approved by a duly recognized international standards body. (If unsure, please explain)

My products do not use any proprietary, unpublished or non-standard cryptographic functionality. My software only calls on the standard encryption algorithms/protocols offered by the platform (e.g. Microsoft Windows, the Microsoft .NET Framework, etc.)

(5) Will your company be exporting "encryption source code"?

No. The software I write is often open source, but the source code only calls on encryption algorithms implemented in the platform. It does not implement encryption algorithms.

(6) Do the products incorporate encryption components produced or furnished by non-U.S. sources or vendors? (If unsure, please explain)

No.

(7) With respect to your company's encryption products, are any of them manufactured outside the United States? If yes, provide manufacturing locations. (Insert "not applicable", if you are not the principal producer of encryption products)

No.
